

Dog Walkers Can Help Fight Crime

Dog walkers, their furry best friends, and walkers in general, are invited for a walk in Civic Center Park on Tuesday, October 2, to learn how they can help prevent crime in our community.

From 4 p.m. to 7 p.m., Palm Desert Police officers will be in the park, located at the northeast corner of San Pablo Avenue and Fred Waring Drive, to explain the Dog Walker Watch program. Like Neighborhood Watch groups, the Dog Walker Watch program is designed to encourage dog walkers, and all walkers, to be community observers and report suspicious activity to the police following through on the motto – “If you see something, say something.”

There is no obligation to register or join a Neighborhood Watch group to participate. For more information, please contact Palm Desert Police Community Service Officer Stacey Austin 760-836-1697.
